

W. S. CORRETT, President. A. HESS, Vice President. J. H. BLACK, Sec. and Treas. H. H. HIGGINS, Sec. S. P. JOHNSON, Sec.

WICHITA

WHOLESALE GROCER CO.,

(Incorporated January 14, 1884.)

NOS. 75 MAIN STREET, WICHITA, KANSAS.

B. LOMBARD, President. L. D. SKINNER, Cashier. J. H. HIGGINS, Vice-President. GEO. E. SPALTON, Asst. Cashier.

Kansas State Bank.

Capital, $52,000

DIRECTORS:

J. H. HIGGINS, B. LOMBARD, JR., J. H. HIGGINS, H. C. DAY, J. H. HIGGINS, L. D. SKINNER, J. H. HIGGINS, L. D. SKINNER.

Accepts Deposits, Makes Collections, Buys and Sells Exchange, and Transacts a General Banking Business.

CORRESPONDENTS:

JESUIT & CO., 52 WILSON ST., N. Y. NATIONAL BANK OF AMERICA, Chicago. BLAIR & ONE NATIONAL BANK, Boston. MERCHANTS' NAT'L BANK, Kansas City.

J. O. DAVIDSON, Pres. S. L. DAVIDSON, Vice-Pres. C. L. DAVIDSON, Sec'y.

The Davidson Loan Co.

PAID-UP CAPITAL $60,000.

Money Always on Hand to Loan on Improved Farms and City Property.

OFFICE WITH CITIZENS BANK, Northwest Corner Main St. and Douglas Avenue, Wichita, Kansas.

Bank of Commerce.

(HATFIELD & HARTLEY.)

Loans Money on Real Estate, Personal, and Chattel Securities.

Receives Deposits, Time and Demand, at Interest.

Buys and sells exchange; makes collections; negotiates municipal bonds, and transacts banking in all its branches.

No. 17 Douglas Avenue, Wichita, Kansas.

RODOLPH HATFIELD, President. R. D. ALLEN, Vice-President. J. M. DENNY, Secretary.

WICHITA

WICHITA

WICHITA

WICHITA

WICHITA

WICHITA

WICHITA

WICHITA

WICHITA

WICHITA

WICHITA

WICHITA

WICHITA

WICHITA

WICHITA

WICHITA

WICHITA

WICHITA

WICHITA

WICHITA

WICHITA

WICHITA

WICHITA

WICHITA

WICHITA

PERSONAL MENTION.

Robert Lambdin, of Eldorado, is in the city.

Mrs. Dr. Stephens has gone on a visit to Illinois.

Mrs. Crouch left a few days ago for Crested Butte, Colorado.

F. M. Sloan, a prominent business man of Chicago, is in the city.

Mr. J. L. Shelden departed for his home at Topeka yesterday evening.

Mr. Hutton, of Clinton, Iowa, is visiting his brother Charles in this city.

Judge Stratford, of Butler county, was among the visiting Knights yesterday.

W. C. Barnes, one of the city officials of Atchison, gave us a pleasant call yesterday.

Mrs. Stinson and Master Harry are visiting at their old home in Carthage, Missouri.

Yesterday we had the pleasure of meeting J. C. Tuttle, county clerk of Wilson county.

Miss Bittia Funk, of Belle Plaine, is in the city, the guest of the family of Mr. H. W. Kendle.

Frank H. Stauff, foreman of the Recorder at Holton, Kansas, gave us a fraternal shake yesterday.

Rev. E. W. Pfaffenberger, of Lafayette, Ind., formerly of this city, gave us a pleasant call Tuesday.

J. B. Rowley, representing the Kansas City Journal, departed for the east on yesterday's train.

W. H. McNeil, a member of Golden Cross Lodge No. 1, of Atchison, was among the agreeable callers yesterday.

H. W. Pond, of Ft. Scott, department commander of Grand Army of the Republic, was one of yesterday's callers.

Mr. W. J. Coulter, a member of Tingo lodge, K. of P. of Chanute, was yesterday shaking hands with Wichita friends.

W. L. Haskell, one of the genial members of the Golden Cross Lodge of Atchison, called on the DAILY EAGLE yesterday.

L. F. Cross, from Mantion, Michigan, accompanied by his daughter, is visiting Mrs. Cross, his mother and the family of T. M. Lane.

Col. Frank Parsons, First Assistant Grand Commander of Knights of Pythias for Missouri, was on the street yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Marlin Gilchrist and C. P. Theis, came down from Emporia yesterday to "take in" the Knights of Pythias drill.

KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS OF KANSAS.

The Line of their Parade and Drill Postponed Until this Afternoon.

Owing to the very unfavorable state of the weather and the bad condition of the streets yesterday, the Knights of Pythias determined to postpone the time of their parade and drill until 1 o'clock this afternoon, when, if the weather is favorable, it will come off per the following programme which we re-publish for the benefit of those who wish to know the nature and time of the various exercises:

WEDNESDAY, MAY 21.

9:30 a. m.—Escorting officers of Grand Division to Armory.

10 a. m.—Reception of Grand Division. First—Meeting of Grand Lodge.

Second—Escorting Grand Lodge to position in line.

Third—Grand parade of Divisions and Lodges.

Fourth—General review of procession by officers of Grand Lodge and Grand Division.

Fifth—Address of welcome to Grand Lodge by E. Hill, C. C. No. 44.

Prize Drill.

Band contest immediately following the drill.

PRIZES.

Open to all Divisions U. R. of the world.

First Prize.....$250.00

Second Prize.....125.00

Third Prize.....50.00

Drill to be governed in all respects by the Caravan tactics, except that twenty men and one officer shall constitute a Division.

BAND CONTEST.

First Prize.....$100.00

Second Prize.....50.00

A band to contest of not less than ten pieces.

COMMITTEES.

EXECUTIVE.

C. A. VanNess, president; S. S. King, secretary; J. M. Allen, treasurer; E. B. Rents, L. N. Woodcock, J. T. McMillen, P. Getto.

FINANCE.

E. P. Hovey, O. D. Kirk, H. M. Jones.

HALL.

Wm. Matthewson, L. W. Dittman, A. C. Hasey, F. A. Sowers, Geo. W. Walter.

HOTELS.

J. T. McMillen, Jno. B. Carey, E. B. Rents, J. Rich, P. Getto.

MUSIC.

John Fisher, H. W. Dunning, Charles Hatton, J. Bissant, A. J. Longsdorf.

ENTERTAINMENTS.

F. Dale, E. A. Dorsey, G. H. Herrington, Geo. Spangenberg, N. F. Niederlander.

DECORATION.

C. Henderson, R. Jacks, C. O. Albert, H. J. Harding, H. Zietzen.

PARADE AND DRILL.

L. N. Woodcock, J. Donahoe, L. W. Ong, B. W. Aldrich, S. S. King.

RECEPTION.

E. Hill, H. W. Stewart, G. N. Byers, J. D. Houston, E. P. Hovey, Jno. Tucker, E. A. Dorsey, L. W. Crouch, A. C. Niederlander, L. C. Wood, H. G. Toler, A. F. Stanley, L. F. Jones, J. M. Chain, G. E. Harris, F. L. Tillinghast, F. J. Arnold, W. H. Whitescarver.

The procession will form on Main, near the Occidental hotel at 2 o'clock this afternoon, and move as follows:

From hotel to Douglas avenue, east on the avenue to Fourth street, north on the avenue to Second street, west on Second to Waco, and east on Waco to the Armory.

Mr. Lewis was instructed by the house to prohibit the sale of any further quantity of the same.

FROM WASHINGTON.

IMMENSE MEETING.

In New York Endorses President Arthur.

The Wealth and Brains of the Country for Him.

MISSOURI EDITORS FORAGING.

Atchison County Enthusiastic for John A. Martin.

HOUSE.

Washington May 20.—The majority of the resolutions presented declare William E. English duly elected member of the Forty eighth congress. Converse spoke in support of the claim contestant, and Hart presented grounds on which the contestant bases his claims. Lowery advocated the claims of the contestant. He alluded to certain language made by J. S. Wise of Virginia, when the Ferrell Paul case was under consideration to the effect that the Virginia bourbon was riding into congress on the back of one of Barnum's Indiana mules. He supposed that remark was founded upon the legend that chairman Barnum had once telegraphed to Indiana concerning some mules. In view of the spectacle which the gentleman from Virginia presented on the floor, he apprehended that if Barnum had been telegraphing to Virginia for an animal of the lower order, he would have telegraphed for one still more brutal in its instincts than a mule. Wise, who had been out, came in and asked that the words be taken down. The speaker said that the proper time for that request had passed. Wise said, I waive all points and reserve the privilege of personal explanation hereafter. Lowery then proceeded with his argument. In the course of his remarks he referred to Thomas Hendricks. Perhaps some of his republican friends had heard of that gentleman as having been the successful candidate for the vice-presidency in 1876. He disclaimed any knowledge of the gentleman in that connection and Lowery retorted by intimating that Hendricks might be heard of as elected to some office in 1884 in connection with the great heart of the Democratic party, Samuel J. Tilden. Hisecock suggested this discussion should be carried on in cipher, which suggestion was received by sundry ejaculation of tattooed from the Democracy side.

THEY ARE FOR ARTHUR.

Chicago May 20.—Telegrams signed by presidents of first and second national bank, by John V. Farrell, P. D. Armour, Henry Kupp, A. W. Potter and representatives of large commercial and financial interests was sent at length to business men's meeting in New York in behalf of President Arthur's re-nomination. The Dispatch expresses appreciation of the importance of the call, and believes that President Arthur should be re-nominated in justice to the welfare of the entire country, and to him who has made so good a President.

BEECHER FOR ARTHUR.

New York, May 20.—The great mass meeting of citizens and business men called to express approval of the administration of President Arthur, and urge his re-nomination for a second term. The mass meeting was held to-night at Cooper Union. More orderly and intelligent assemblage than that which crowded the great hall never before seen in this city. At half past seven every seat in the building was occupied, and one-half an hour later when C. N. Bliss, of Bliss, Fairburn &amp; Co., called the meeting to order, not another person could find standing room in the hall, though they still continued to pour into the doorway, until finally at 8:10 the commanding police gave orders to close the doors. In the audience were a large number of ladies. Seats were provided upon the platform for about sixty people. Among the prominent persons who occupied them were C. N. Bliss, Frederick S. Winslow, Henry Ward Beecher, Benj. H. Bristow, Ed. Peirce, Assistant U. S. Treasurer T. O. Acton, Surgeon D. G. Rollins, C. R. Agnew, Legrand B. Canham, Jesse Seligman, Salem H. Watts, Sam Slocum and Parke Goodwin.

HOUSE.

Washington May 20.—The majority of the resolutions presented declare William E. English duly elected member of the Forty eighth congress. Converse spoke in support of the claim contestant, and Hart presented grounds on which the contestant bases his claims. Lowery advocated the claims of the contestant. He alluded to certain language made by J. S. Wise of Virginia, when the Ferrell Paul case was under consideration to the effect that the Virginia bourbon was riding into congress on the back of one of Barnum's Indiana mules. He supposed that remark was founded upon the legend that chairman Barnum had once telegraphed to Indiana concerning some mules. In view of the spectacle which the gentleman from Virginia presented on the floor, he apprehended that if Barnum had been telegraphing to Virginia for an animal of the lower order, he would have telegraphed for one still more brutal in its instincts than a mule. Wise, who had been out, came in and asked that the words be taken down. The speaker said that the proper time for that request had passed. Wise said, I waive all points and reserve the privilege of personal explanation hereafter. Lowery then proceeded with his argument. In the course of his remarks he referred to Thomas Hendricks. Perhaps some of his republican friends had heard of that gentleman as having been the successful candidate for the vice-presidency in 1876. He disclaimed any knowledge of the gentleman in that connection and Lowery retorted by intimating that Hendricks might be heard of as elected to some office in 1884 in connection with the great heart of the Democratic party, Samuel J. Tilden. Hisecock suggested this discussion should be carried on in cipher, which suggestion was received by sundry ejaculation of tattooed from the Democracy side.

THEY ARE FOR ARTHUR.

Chicago May 20.—Telegrams signed by presidents of first and second national bank, by John V. Farrell, P. D. Armour, Henry Kupp, A. W. Potter and representatives of large commercial and financial interests was sent at length to business men's meeting in New York in behalf of President Arthur's re-nomination. The Dispatch expresses appreciation of the importance of the call, and believes that President Arthur should be re-nominated in justice to the welfare of the entire country, and to him who has made so good a President.

BEECHER FOR ARTHUR.

New York, May 20.—The great mass meeting of citizens and business men called to express approval of the administration of President Arthur, and urge his re-nomination for a second term. The mass meeting was held to-night at Cooper Union. More orderly and intelligent assemblage than that which crowded the great hall never before seen in this city. At half past seven every seat in the building was occupied, and one-half an hour later when C. N. Bliss, of Bliss, Fairburn &amp; Co., called the meeting to order, not another person could find standing room in the hall, though they still continued to pour into the doorway, until finally at 8:10 the commanding police gave orders to close the doors. In the audience were a large number of ladies. Seats were provided upon the platform for about sixty people. Among the prominent persons who occupied them were C. N. Bliss, Frederick S. Winslow, Henry Ward Beecher, Benj. H. Bristow, Ed. Peirce, Assistant U. S. Treasurer T. O. Acton, Surgeon D. G. Rollins, C. R. Agnew, Legrand B. Canham, Jesse Seligman, Salem H. Watts, Sam Slocum and Parke Goodwin.

HOUSE.

Washington May 20.—The majority of the resolutions presented declare William E. English duly elected member of the Forty eighth congress. Converse spoke in support of the claim contestant, and Hart presented grounds on which the contestant bases his claims. Lowery advocated the claims of the contestant. He alluded to certain language made by J. S. Wise of Virginia, when the Ferrell Paul case was under consideration to the effect that the Virginia bourbon was riding into congress on the back of one of Barnum's Indiana mules. He supposed that remark was founded upon the legend that chairman Barnum had once telegraphed to Indiana concerning some mules. In view of the spectacle which the gentleman from Virginia presented on the floor, he apprehended that if Barnum had been telegraphing to Virginia for an animal of the lower order, he would have telegraphed for one still more brutal in its instincts than a mule. Wise, who had been out, came in and asked that the words be taken down. The speaker said that the proper time for that request had passed. Wise said, I waive all points and reserve the privilege of personal explanation hereafter. Lowery then proceeded with his argument. In the course of his remarks he referred to Thomas Hendricks. Perhaps some of his republican friends had heard of that gentleman as having been the successful candidate for the vice-presidency in 1876. He disclaimed any knowledge of the gentleman in that connection and Lowery retorted by intimating that Hendricks might be heard of as elected to some office in 1884 in connection with the great heart of the Democratic party, Samuel J. Tilden. Hisecock suggested this discussion should be carried on in cipher, which suggestion was received by sundry ejaculation of tattooed from the Democracy side.

THEY ARE FOR ARTHUR.

Chicago May 20.—Telegrams signed by presidents of first and second national bank, by John V. Farrell, P. D. Armour, Henry Kupp, A. W. Potter and representatives of large commercial and financial interests was sent at length to business men's meeting in New York in behalf of President Arthur's re-nomination. The Dispatch expresses appreciation of the importance of the call, and believes that President Arthur should be re-nominated in justice to the welfare of the entire country, and to him who has made so good a President.

BEECHER FOR ARTHUR.

New York, May 20.—The great mass meeting of citizens and business men called to express approval of the administration of President Arthur, and urge his re-nomination for a second term. The mass meeting was held to-night at Cooper Union. More orderly and intelligent assemblage than that which crowded the great hall never before seen in this city. At half past seven every seat in the building was occupied, and one-half an hour later when C. N. Bliss, of Bliss, Fairburn &amp; Co., called the meeting to order, not another person could find standing room in the hall, though they still continued to pour into the doorway, until finally at 8:10 the commanding police gave orders to close the doors. In the audience were a large number of ladies. Seats were provided upon the platform for about sixty people. Among the prominent persons who occupied them were C. N. Bliss, Frederick S. Winslow, Henry Ward Beecher, Benj. H. Bristow, Ed. Peirce, Assistant U. S. Treasurer T. O. Acton, Surgeon D. G. Rollins, C. R. Agnew, Legrand B. Canham, Jesse Seligman, Salem H. Watts, Sam Slocum and Parke Goodwin.

HOUSE.

Washington May 20.—The majority of the resolutions presented declare William E. English duly elected member of the Forty eighth congress. Converse spoke in support of the claim contestant, and Hart presented grounds on which the contestant bases his claims. Lowery advocated the claims of the contestant. He alluded to certain language made by J. S. Wise of Virginia, when the Ferrell Paul case was under consideration to the effect that the Virginia bourbon was riding into congress on the back of one of Barnum's Indiana mules. He supposed that remark was founded upon the legend that chairman Barnum had once telegraphed to Indiana concerning some mules. In view of the spectacle which the gentleman from Virginia presented on the floor, he apprehended that if Barnum had been telegraphing to Virginia for an animal of the lower order, he would have telegraphed for one still more brutal in its instincts than a mule. Wise, who had been out, came in and asked that the words be taken down. The speaker said that the proper time for that request had passed. Wise said, I waive all points and reserve the privilege of personal explanation hereafter. Lowery then proceeded with his argument. In the course of his remarks he referred to Thomas Hendricks. Perhaps some of his republican friends had heard of that gentleman as having been the successful candidate for the vice-presidency in 1876. He disclaimed any knowledge of the gentleman in that connection and Lowery retorted by intimating that Hendricks might be heard of as elected to some office in 1884 in connection with the great heart of the Democratic party, Samuel J. Tilden. Hisecock suggested this discussion should be carried on in cipher, which suggestion was received by sundry ejaculation of tattooed from the Democracy side.

THEY ARE FOR ARTHUR.

Chicago May 20.—Telegrams signed by presidents of first and second national bank, by John V. Farrell, P. D. Armour, Henry Kupp, A. W. Potter and representatives of large commercial and financial interests was sent at length to business men's meeting in New York in behalf of President Arthur's re-nomination. The Dispatch expresses appreciation of the importance of the call, and believes that President Arthur should be re-nominated in justice to the welfare of the entire country, and to him who has made so good a President.

BEECHER FOR ARTHUR.

New York, May 20.—The great mass meeting of citizens and business men called to express approval of the administration of President Arthur, and urge his re-nomination for a second term. The mass meeting was held to-night at Cooper Union. More orderly and intelligent assemblage than that which crowded the great hall never before seen in this city. At half past seven every seat in the building was occupied, and one-half an hour later when C. N. Bliss, of Bliss, Fairburn &amp; Co., called the meeting to order, not another person could find standing room in the hall, though they still continued to pour into the doorway, until finally at 8:10 the commanding police gave orders to close the doors. In the audience were a large number of ladies. Seats were provided upon the platform for about sixty people. Among the prominent persons who occupied them were C. N. Bliss, Frederick S. Winslow, Henry Ward Beecher, Benj. H. Bristow, Ed. Peirce, Assistant U. S. Treasurer T. O. Acton, Surgeon D. G. Rollins, C. R. Agnew, Legrand B. Canham, Jesse Seligman, Salem H. Watts, Sam Slocum and Parke Goodwin.

HOUSE.

Washington May 20.—The majority of the resolutions presented declare William E. English duly elected member of the Forty eighth congress. Converse spoke in support of the claim contestant, and Hart presented grounds on which the contestant bases his claims. Lowery advocated the claims of the contestant. He alluded to certain language made by J. S. Wise of Virginia, when the Ferrell Paul case was under consideration to the effect that the Virginia bourbon was riding into congress on the back of one of Barnum's Indiana mules. He supposed that remark was founded upon the legend that chairman Barnum had once telegraphed to Indiana concerning some mules. In view of the spectacle which the gentleman from Virginia presented on the floor, he apprehended that if Barnum had been telegraphing to Virginia for an animal of the lower order, he would have telegraphed for one still more brutal in its instincts than a mule. Wise, who had been out, came in and asked that the words be taken down. The speaker said that the proper time for that request had passed. Wise said, I waive all points and reserve the privilege of personal explanation hereafter. Lowery then proceeded with his argument. In the course of his remarks he referred to Thomas Hendricks. Perhaps some of his republican friends had heard of that gentleman as having been the successful candidate for the vice-presidency in 1876. He disclaimed any knowledge of the gentleman in that connection and Lowery retorted by intimating that Hendricks might be heard of as elected to some office in 1884 in connection with the great heart of the Democratic party, Samuel J. Tilden. Hisecock suggested this discussion should be carried on in cipher, which suggestion was received by sundry ejaculation of tattooed from the Democracy side.

THEY ARE FOR ARTHUR.

Chicago May 20.—Telegrams signed by presidents of first and second national bank, by John V. Farrell, P. D. Armour, Henry Kupp, A. W. Potter and representatives of large commercial and financial interests was sent at length to business men's meeting in New York in behalf of President Arthur's re-nomination. The Dispatch expresses appreciation of the importance of the call, and believes that President Arthur should be re-nominated in justice to the welfare of the entire country, and to him who has made so good a President.

BEECHER FOR ARTHUR.

New York, May 20.—The great mass meeting of citizens and business men called to express approval of the administration of President Arthur, and urge his re-nomination for a second term. The mass meeting was held to-night at Cooper Union. More orderly and intelligent assemblage than that which crowded the great hall never before seen in this city. At half past seven every seat in the building was occupied, and one-half an hour later when C. N. Bliss, of Bliss, Fairburn &amp; Co., called the meeting to order, not another person could find standing room in the hall, though they still continued to pour into the doorway, until finally at 8:10 the commanding police gave orders to close the doors. In the audience were a large number of ladies. Seats were provided upon the platform for about sixty people. Among the prominent persons who occupied them were C. N. Bliss, Frederick S. Winslow, Henry Ward Beecher, Benj. H. Bristow, Ed. Peirce, Assistant U. S. Treasurer T. O. Acton, Surgeon D. G. Rollins, C. R. Agnew, Legrand B. Canham, Jesse Seligman, Salem H. Watts, Sam Slocum and Parke Goodwin.

HOUSE.

Washington May 20.—The majority of the resolutions presented declare William E. English duly elected member of the Forty eighth congress. Converse spoke in support of the claim contestant, and Hart presented grounds on which the contestant bases his claims. Lowery advocated the claims of the contestant. He alluded to certain language made by J. S. Wise of Virginia, when the Ferrell Paul case was under consideration to the effect that the Virginia bourbon was riding into congress on the back of one of Barnum's Indiana mules. He supposed that remark was founded upon the legend that chairman Barnum had once telegraphed to Indiana concerning some mules. In view of the spectacle which the gentleman from Virginia presented on the floor, he apprehended that if Barnum had been telegraphing to Virginia for an animal of the lower order, he would have telegraphed for one still more brutal in its instincts than a mule. Wise, who had been out, came in and asked that the words be taken down. The speaker said that the proper time for that request had passed. Wise said, I waive all points and reserve the privilege of personal explanation hereafter. Lowery then proceeded with his argument. In the course of his remarks he referred to Thomas Hendricks. Perhaps some of his republican friends had heard of that gentleman as having been the successful candidate for the vice-presidency in 1876. He disclaimed any knowledge of the gentleman in that connection and Lowery retorted by intimating that Hendricks might be heard of as elected to some office in 1884 in connection with the great heart of the Democratic party, Samuel J. Tilden. Hisecock suggested this discussion should be carried on in cipher, which suggestion was received by sundry ejaculation of tattooed from the Democracy side.

THEY ARE FOR ARTHUR.

Chicago May 20.—Telegrams signed by presidents of first and second national bank, by John V. Farrell, P. D. Armour, Henry Kupp, A. W. Potter and representatives of large commercial and financial interests was sent at length to business men's meeting in New York in behalf of President Arthur's re-nomination. The Dispatch expresses appreciation of the importance of the call, and believes that President Arthur should be re-nominated in justice to the welfare of the entire country, and to him who has made so good a President.

BEECHER FOR ARTHUR.

New York, May 20.—The great mass meeting of citizens and business men called to express approval of the administration of President Arthur, and urge his re-nomination for a second term. The mass meeting was held to-night at Cooper Union. More orderly and intelligent assemblage than that which crowded the great hall never before seen in this city. At half past seven every seat in the building was occupied, and one-half an hour later when C. N. Bliss, of Bliss, Fairburn &amp; Co., called the meeting to order, not another person could find standing room in the hall, though they still continued to pour into the doorway, until finally at 8:10 the commanding police gave orders to close the doors. In the audience were a large number of ladies. Seats were provided upon the platform for about sixty people. Among the prominent persons who occupied them were C. N. Bliss, Frederick S. Winslow, Henry Ward Beecher, Benj. H. Bristow, Ed. Peirce, Assistant U. S. Treasurer T. O. Acton, Surgeon D. G. Rollins, C. R. Agnew, Legrand B. Canham, Jesse Seligman, Salem H. Watts, Sam Slocum and Parke Goodwin.

HOUSE.

Washington May 20.—The majority of the resolutions presented declare William E. English duly elected member of the Forty eighth congress. Converse spoke in support of the claim contestant, and Hart presented grounds on which the contestant bases his claims. Lowery advocated the claims of the contestant. He alluded to certain language made by J. S. Wise of Virginia, when the Ferrell Paul case was under consideration to the effect that the Virginia bourbon was riding into congress on the back of one of Barnum's Indiana mules. He supposed that remark was founded upon the legend that chairman Barnum had once telegraphed to Indiana concerning some mules. In view of the spectacle which the gentleman from Virginia presented on the floor, he apprehended that if Barnum had been telegraphing to Virginia for an animal of the lower order, he would have telegraphed for one still more brutal in its instincts than a mule. Wise, who had been out, came in and asked that the words be taken down. The speaker said that the proper time for that request had passed. Wise said, I waive all points and reserve the privilege of personal explanation hereafter. Lowery then proceeded with his argument. In the course of his remarks he referred to Thomas Hendricks. Perhaps some of his republican friends had heard of that gentleman as having been the successful candidate for the vice-presidency in 1876. He disclaimed any knowledge of the gentleman in that connection and Lowery retorted by intimating that Hendricks might be heard of as elected to some office in 1884 in connection with the great heart of the Democratic party, Samuel J. Tilden. Hisecock suggested this discussion should be carried on in cipher, which suggestion was received by sundry ejaculation of tattooed from the Democracy side.

THEY ARE FOR ARTHUR.

Chicago May 20.—Telegrams signed by presidents of first and second national bank, by John V. Farrell, P. D. Armour, Henry Kupp, A. W. Potter and representatives of large commercial and financial interests was sent at length to business men's meeting in New York in behalf of President Arthur's re-nomination. The Dispatch expresses appreciation of the importance of the call, and believes that President Arthur should be re-nominated in justice to the welfare of the entire country, and to him who has made so good a President.

BEECHER FOR ARTHUR.

New York, May 20.—The great mass meeting of citizens and business men called to express approval of the administration of President Arthur, and urge his re-nomination for a second term. The mass meeting was held to-night at Cooper Union. More orderly and intelligent assemblage than that which crowded